

AHIMA Foundation Doctoral Grant Program

Applicant Name	Review Date
-----------------------	--------------------

Reviewer Name
----------------------

Application Evaluation

Both the essay questions and dissertation proposal should be used for this evaluation

CRITERIA	NOT MET	APPROACHING	MET
Alignment with AFRN Research Goals	The applicant does not articulate a clear alignment with AFRN research goals.	The applicant articulates a general alignment with AFRN research goals.	The applicant articulates a specific alignment with one or more AFRN research goals.
Role in advancing health equity and/or health literacy	The applicant's research does not demonstrate any role in advancing either health equity or health literacy.	The applicant's research demonstrates a related role in advancing health equity and/or health literacy.	The applicant's research demonstrates an unambiguous role in advancing health equity and/or health literacy.
Contribution to the profession	The applicant's research would contribute little or none to the general body of HIIM knowledge.	The applicant's research would contribute to the general body of HIIM knowledge.	The applicant's research would advance a specific HIIM knowledge base.
Writing Quality	The responses contain multiple errors in grammar, spelling, and formatting to be considered professional quality.	The responses contain some errors in grammar, spelling, and formatting but is generally of high quality.	The responses contain little or no errors in grammar, spelling, and formatting and demonstrates professional quality.